Tara Learning Center: Statement of Faith

(The Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds; God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made.

Who, for us men and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of the Father; and He shall come again, with glory, to judge the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of Life; who proceeds from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets.

And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins; and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We have read, understand, and agree with the Tara Learning Center Statement of Faith.

Tara Learning Center: Parent/Student Participation Agreement

We hereby agree to comply with the following rules and policies of Tara Learning Center (TLC):

School closings/cancellations. For school closings, cancellations, and delayed openings due to inclement weather, TLC generally follows Loudoun County Public School policy. For complete information regarding our inclement weather policy, see our website posting (<http://www.taralearningcenter.com/closings-and-delays.html>). All TLC families should check both local news media, as well as their email, on any day(s) when the weather situation is questionable.

Punctuality. Students/parents agree to be on time for classes. Students who will be late due to traffic or for other reasons should contact either the teacher or the TLC office prior to being late.

Attire. Modest apparel is expected for both guys and girls. Inappropriate dress will not be accepted. Further details regarding our dress code are available online (<http://www.taralearningcenter.com/facility-usedress-code.html>).

Cell phones. Cell phones may be carried by students for emergency use only. We encourage our students to be responsible; phone calls for lunches, homework, etc., that were left at home are discouraged. Electronic devices are only allowed to be used in class if they are being used for that class (i.e. looking up a bookmarked passage for a literature class). Texting and use for entertainment purposes are strictly prohibited.

Study Hall. Study Hall is a designated area where students may work quietly before or after classes. Students may study and work on homework while waiting for a sibling, for their next class, or for their parents to pick them up. If students want to study with each other, they should do so quietly in the front office, in the stairwell, or on the front porch. If a student is persistently disruptive, his or her Study Hall privileges will be revoked.

Behavior. Students are not permitted to be rough with the furniture, sit on tables, lean back in chairs, or throw trash.

Homework. Students are expected to complete all homework assigned. If a student misses a class, the student is expected to contact the teacher for assignments. If class assignments remain uncompleted, then the teacher may request that the student be removed from the class roster, and no refund will be given.

Cheating/plagiarism. Cheating will not be tolerated and may result in dismissal from TLC, and no refund will be given. Copying information from the internet without proper documentation is plagiarism and is considered cheating.

Payment policy/purchase of required books and materials. By signing this agreement, parents agree that they have carefully considered which classes meet the needs of their students and understand that all fees must be paid and books and materials purchased by the due date(s) indicated on our website. Full details regarding payment, late payment, and refund policies are available online (<http://www.taralearningcenter.com/paymentsreport-cards.html>).

We have read and understand the Tara Learning Center policies described above.

v. 12/1/2021

See the Course Catalog (<http://www.taralearningcenter.com/course-catalog.html>) on our website for more information about individual courses.

The tuition fee for each course (except World Literature) is $200 per semester ($400/course/year) or, if paying a one-time annual fee, $375/course/year. (The tuition for World Literature is $100/semester and $175/year).

Note that a 20% tuition discount will be applied for families enrolling students in three or more total courses per family. Paying once annually (rather than by semester) affords additional savings ($25/course).

*Note that a course or courses may be canceled if the enrollment is insufficient by May 31, 2022. You will be notified if a course for which you have registered has been canceled.

†World Literature/Writing is an instructor- and student-managed honors course for students who have completed the American and/or British Literature course(s). There is thus no regular class time period or day. For more information, see the course description (<http://www.taralearningcenter.com/honors-literature.html>).
